Dear Parents, Greetings!

Holidays are special breaks from our everyday schedules, and we all eagerly await them. Finally, the much-awaited summer vacations are here! The hot, windy days of May and June make us all excited for this long break, a time to relax and have fun.

It's a great time for you to cherish the little joys of your child. It's important to limit screen time and supervise the channels your child watches. Provide valuable guidance and spend quality time with them. Make these holidays memorable by creating a nurturing and stimulating environment at home that is full of fun, excitement, and learning. Here are a few suggestions for parents:

- Engage in meaningful conversations every day.
- Read a variety of storybooks.
- Assign small household responsibilities to help them become independent.
- Teach them the importance of moral values in their lives.
- Participate in various indoor games with them.
- While it's crucial to take breaks and have fun, it's equally important to keep learning. Find a balance between work and play, and let your child grow along the way.
- The objective of holiday homework is to empower our students to work independently and enhance their academic abilities. Please take note:
- Prepare a systematic timetable and follow it religiously from the very first day.
- Allow them to complete their homework on their own under your guidance.
- Remember to capture the fun moments while engaging in the given activities and paste the corresponding pictures in your album!
- Encourage them to choose two new words from their daily conversation.

ENGLISH CONVERSATION

Encourage your child to use these sentences regularly, such as upon waking up, during meals, before bedtime, and when interacting with family and friends. Remind them to speak politely and clearly, utilizing these phrases to express their needs, seek permission, offer apologies when required, express gratitude, and greet others courteously.

- Good morning, Mummy! Good morning, Daddy!
- Can I go out and play, please?
- Are we going to visit someone today?
- Will some guests come to our house today?
- Can I please call my friend?
- I'm sorry for making a mess.
- Thank you for helping me.
- Excuse me, may I speak?
- Thank you for sharing with me.
- Goodbye, see you later

Sponge boat craft DIY toy for kids

You will need:

- Kitchen scourer sponges (or an ordinary thick sponge would also work)
- Craft sticks
- Duct tape in different colours
- Ruler
- Craft knife and cutting mat – note only an adult should use the craft knife
- Scissors

How to:

1. Cut the tip of your kitchen scourer into a pointy end using scissors. It might help to rule lines on the sponge with a lead pencil first so that it's even.
2. Using your craft knife, cut a small horizontal slit in the sponge for the mast (the craft stick) to be placed.
3. Make the sail. Lay down a piece of duct tape, then stick a second piece of duct tape along side it also upside down but overlapping. The width should be approximately the same as the width of the sponge. Stick a second layer of tape down over the first, so that the sticky side faces down and the sail is smooth on both sides. Decorate with stripes of a different colour if desired, but this is optional.
4. Use your craft knife or scissors to trim the edges of the sail. Make it a roughly square shape.
5. Place two small pieces of duct tape around the craft stick mast at the top and close to the bottom where the base of the sail will sit. This helps to keep sail in place.
6. Use your craft knife again to cut a small horizontal slit at the top and bottom of the sail.

Thread the duct tape sail through the slits to make a curved mast

And now... time to play

SUMMERTIME

By Sarah Griffin

Summertime, summertime,
Let's go out and play.
Time for fun, and lots of sun.
I love these kind of days.

Summertime, summertime,
Swimming to stay cool.
Pillow fights,
And late night bites.
An awesome break from school!

Little Jack Horner
Sat in a corner
Eating his Christmas pie.

He put in his thumb
And pulled out a plum,
And said,
"What a good boy am I!"

Enjoy your summer holidays and don't forget to complete your homework.

See you Soon

Thank You
